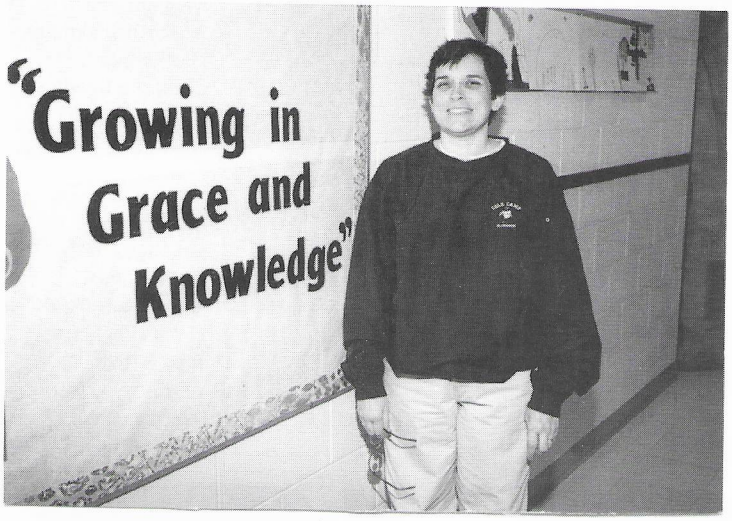
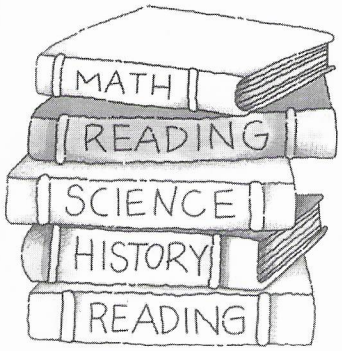
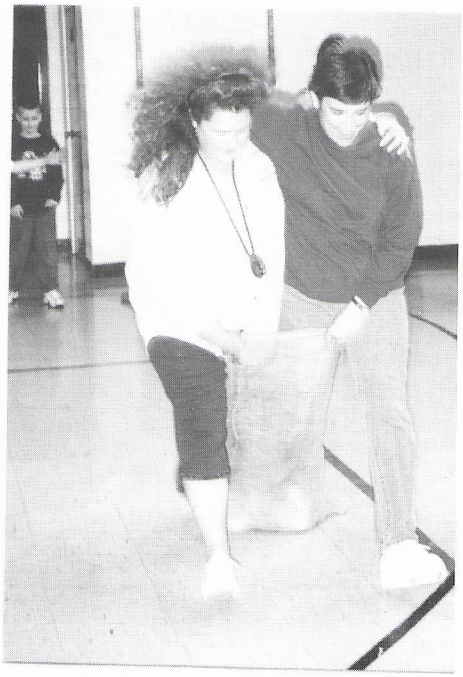
DEDICATION







We, the 8th grade class of 2003-2004, dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Schnakenberg. For the last two years Mrs. Schnakenberg has shared with us the world of math and science. We appreciate her willingness to always answer our questions and help us with our problems. Thank you for sharing your knowledge of algebra and helping us to understand the wonders of the world around us. We will always remember her friendly smile. God's blessings!

Eighth Grade Class Prophecy

It is the year 2014 and last week, I, Lindsey Emmerich, a famous cosmetologist, was in my hair salon in Orange County, California when I turned on the television and saw a familiar face. It was my old classmate Trenton Miller, playing basketball for the Los Angeles Lakers. As I watched the game, I learned that he was the star player. I decided to go and find him. I got in my car and started cruisin down the road. As I was driving, I looked up and saw a huge billboard with the face of Mac Heimsoth on it saying "got milk?" When I saw him I started to really miss all of my old 8th grade classmates. Since I was already on the way to find Trent, I thought it would be a good idea to have a class reunion. On the "got milk?" sign there was a phone number, 1-800-MAC-MILK. I decided to call him and tell him that we would be having a class reunion. We still needed to find two more of our classmates! Trent said that he and Caleb Eckhoff were still good friends and he knew where to find him. Caleb was living in Florida because he was a race car driver. We all caught the next flight to Florida and on the plane, we coincidentally found Kaileigh Wilshusen. She had been the only classmate left to locate. She was on her way to Florida to get on a Navy ship. She liked the idea of a reunion. When we landed, we found Caleb and all five of us were together again. We were only missing one person, our old 7th and 8th grade teacher, Mrs. MacLean! We decided to all chip in and send her and her family down to Florida in an all expense paid trip. We found out she was still living in Missouri so she was thrilled to take a vacation to Florida! She got there the next day and we all talked about our lives and careers. We went to Universal Studios and took Mrs. MacLean on some wild roller coasters and we also visited the ocean. We ended the reunion by watching Caleb win the Daytona 500. We all said goodbye and agreed that we had, had a great time. We planned to have another reunion soon!
