CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

ETHEL HOBEIN - "Forward in Faith." This is the motto our class has selected.

In this motto we see God's relentless search for sinners and the promise of a Savior to rescue man from his sins. For Christ came into the world to save us and we were sent into the world to teach God's Word to those who have not received it.

Now that our eight years of Christian elementary training have been completed, let us ever be thankful for this special privilege.

As we continue our education in other schools and throughout our life let us remain faithful to Him by "going forward in faith."

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our parents, pastors, and teachers for the guidance they have given us and the patience which they have shown us. May the Lord reward you richly.

MARY BROCKMAN - It is an honor and a privilege to have been chosen to speak a few words this evening:

We have selected for our graduation, the beautiful hymn "The Lord My Pasture Shall Prepare" taken from the 23rd Psalm. It shows us how God is always watching over us, and sees to all our needs by day and night.

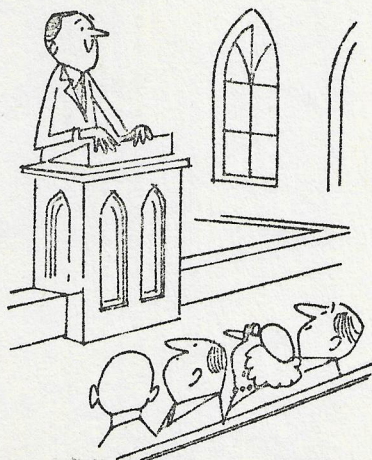

Now that commencement is here we will no longer be attending a Christian Day school. We will have different places to go and new activities in our lives. As we go on through life we should remember that God is always near us to guide and protect us from all evil.

We would like to express our thanks to pastors and teachers for all the efforts they put forth in our behalf; also to all those who have made it possible for us to attend the Lutheran school.

JUDY HEIMSOTH - As we come to the close of our Graduation Service; we want to give special thanks to God for our Christian parents, our pastors, and our teachers for bringing us up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. We also want to ask God for His guidance in the remaining part of our lives that we may ever move "Forward in Faith", and finally reach our goal--Heaven and Life Eternal. And may we all be reunited with the Chief Shepherd in the pasture which He has prepared for us in His kingdom.

Thank you, Prof. Grothaus for your inspiring message.

I feel certain that I am speaking for everyone when I say that this has been an inspiring service and will long be remembered by the graduating class and everyone present.

THE PASTORS SPEAK

Dear friends of the Class of '64:

Eight years have come and gone since you began your education. For most of you, these have been eight years of learning to know more about your good and gracious Lord. It has been our privilege to have shared this last year with you and to especially bring you the Word of God through your Confirmation class. It has been a year in which we have truly given thanks unto God; for we have seen your young lives filled with love for God and respect for His Word.

Our prayer for you, as we come to the end of your parochial school training is the same that St. Paul offered for the young Pastor Timothy, when he said: "but continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them, and that from a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus."

I am sure that Pastor Boehne, to whom you have dedicated your year book, joins me in the prayer that you will continue to hear the Word of God faithfully, and to live it in your lives, that through the power of God the Holy Spirit you may truly go forward in faith.

We wish you the Lord's blessings!

Pastor Krout

To the Class of 1964:

My sincere congratulations upon the completion of the first eight years of your schooling. What a privilege was yours to receive the first step of your education in a Christian Day school! In this school you were not only taught the fundamentals of your basic secular education, reading, writing, arithmetic, but also the eternal truths of God, these truths which reveal unto you the real purpose of your life. My sincere prayer and hope in your behalf is that you will always retain these spiritual truths and permit them to guide and lead you throughout your lives in whatever you do. In so doing, with the help of your gracious God, your life will be a life that will bring joys and blessings to all with whom you come into contact, especially to yourself.

I am very appreciative of your thoughts in remembering me by dedicating this yearbook to me. Thank you.

W.J. Boehne, pastor

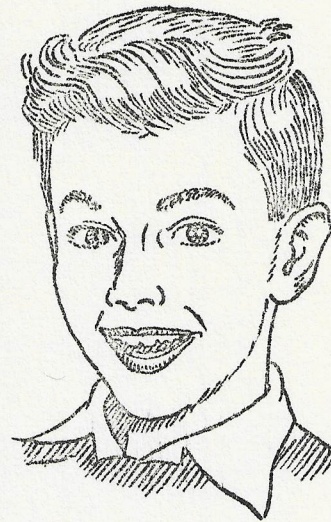

A FEW WORDS FROM THE TEACHERS

Dear Graduates:

You are the largest class ever to have been graduated from either the Lutheran School Association or Trinity Lutheran School. You, a class of twenty pupils, have been blessed beyond measure. The Lord has granted every one of you many talents. It is our hope that you will now put these talents to further use as you continue in your formal training. Above all, put these talents to use in the service of your Lord and your fellowman.

Your teachers wish you the Lord's richest blessings.

GRADE SEVEN

The twenty-one members of grade seven are just one year away from graduation. If they had attentive ears they will also have gained more knowledge and should be ready to give a good account of themselves.

The Trinity Mission Fair got some help from this class for a display. Chief artist was Lynn Mabe. He also contributed to this yearbook by producing the portrait sketch of Pastor Boehne.

The three sponsoring congregations are represented in this grade.

Members of the class are Mary Lou Bockelman, Dianne Brandt; Randy Brockman, Patricia Denker; Donald Eckhoff, Darrel Ehlers; Lucille Grother; Bonnie Hayward, Ellen Heimsoth, Kenneth Heimsoth, Lloyd Heisterberg, Betty Henning, Marilvn Jagels, Paul Luetjen, Lynn Mabe, Wayne Meyer, Francis Root, Dorothy Schuette, James Vajen, Elaine Viets, and Margaret Zimmerschied.

FLAGS--A GIFT

During the past school year the four classrooms were the recipients of four beautiful flags; one for each classroom. They are the gift of the local American Legion Auxillary. We are very appreciative of this gift. The flags have been displayed in the classrooms and will be placed permanently for the next school term.

PASTOR KROUT--FOR ONE YEAR

We would like to say to Pastor Krout that it has been a pleasure to see the keen interest that he has shown during his first year in our midst.

The eighth grade especially, is very grateful for his guidance and leadership during the past year. They bid him a hearty farewell from the instruction class. He is assured, however, that they will look to him for guidance in their entire church life.

A NEW TEACHER?

Miss Karen Fritsche has been teaching at our school for one year. We are happy to report that we will have Mrs. Cecil Harms for a teacher next year. This will be no surprise to you because it will be the same person. We wish her the Lord's richest blessings in her married life and on the faculty.

At this point Miss Fritsche left the typewriter and was very pleasantly surprised with a miscellaneous shower by mothers of the pupils in her room. Included were other immediate associates.

She did most of the cutting of the stencils for this book.

HOW WE GOT HERE

In 1956 five boys and four girls began their expedition of the world with Mrs. Hesse as their guide. Their names were David Eckhoff, Larry Stelling, Harold Wienberg, Arthur Schlender, and Rodney Tobaben. The girls were Linda Heimsoth, Judy Heimsoth, Faye Ann Hagenah, and Jeannie Dieckman.

Our guide suggested that we first visit Canada in 1956 where we had an enjoyable visit.

In 1957 we journeyed to Australia where Arthur was carried off by a mother kangaroo who mistook him for her young one.

In 1958 we traveled to Europe where we changed guides.

In 1959 we went to South America with Miss Schnakenberg, our new guide. There we found Gary Maynard swinging on a grapevine following Mary Brockman and Debbie Noel. After we went about two miles we found Jo Ann Hayward about to be eaten by cannibals. Rodney grabbed his elephant gun and started firing wildly into the cannibals. Rodney shouted "Save her!" And he did! While Rodney was firing wildly he accidentally hit Jeannie. We had to leave her at a hospital in Rio De Janeiro. Debbie stayed with Jeannie.

In 1960 we went to Antarctica where nothing happened, but it was very cold. In 1961, as we were sailing to Asia, we saw a white distress flag fluttering in the breeze. It turned out to be a group of people shipwrecked a month earlier. Their names were as follows: Ronald Viets as captain with Jerry Heimsoth as a space scientist. Passengers were Joyce Miesner, Mildred Holtzen, Ethel Hobein, Edith Muller, and Mary Lou Luetjen. We found Margie Bergman sitting in a tree eating olives. Mr. Fadler was our guide in Asia.

In 1962 we traveled to Africa where we found Wayne Schumacher entangled in boa constrictor. Margie tried to run away, but stumbled over a rock and fell on the snake's head and killed it for which Wayne is forever grateful. We go one-half mile farther and there we see Debbie Noel fighting for her life against two alligators. When Gary and Larry heard her frantic screams, they pulled out their knives and jumped in to save her. David and Harold stood on the bank and threw spears at the alligators. We killed the alligators and finally saved Debbie. Then we returned to the United States with twenty students. Our last trip was over the United States. Mr. L.C. Schnell served as guide the last two years.

WHERE WE WILL BE

One sunny June day in 1974, we famous reporters for the New York Times, Ethel Hobein, Faye Ann Hagenah, and I, Margie Bergman are starting from New York to Russia to attend the United Nations-Russian Annual Ball. This is the most important ball held annually at Moscow, Russia. All the people of high society attend.

We board our plane where we find Ronald Viets as the pilot, and Edith Muller as stewardess, doing a very good job.

Our first and only stop is in Madrid, Spain, where we find Harold Wienberg a well-known bullfighter in the middle of a performance.

We finally arrive at the wonderful city of Moscow. We are met at the airport by Jo Ann Hayward, Mildred Holtzen, and Mary Lou Luetjen, hostesses of Premier Khrushchev. We are taken to a luxurious hotel where we are to stay. To our surprise Gary Maynard is the owner. We sign the book and Gary calls a bell hop, Joyce Miesner, to carry our bags to our room.

We decided we were hungry after our long trip, so we went to the dining room to eat dinner. All of a sudden the drums beat and the lights grow dim and out walks Rodney Tobaben, a tap dancer, accompanied by Wayne Schumacher, orchestra conductor. They did a song and dance called "Roses of the Valley." We had a very enjoyable evening.

The next night is the night of the Ball. We call a taxi, and to our surprise Judy Heimsoth is the driver. She takes us to the Kremlin. When we get there we check our coats at the door and go in. There seemed to be millions of people there. We were getting scads of pictures of kings and princes, and princesses, and other famous people. Representing Greece was David Eckhoff, the king, and Debbie Noel, the wife of a wealthy Greek.

The United States was well represented by Jerry Heimsoth, the hair-stylist of Jane Mansfield, and Linda Heimsoth, a famous Hollywood director. All the other countries were well represented also.

We asked Mary Brockman, secretary of the Johnson Brothers Oil Company, for a list of all the people present.

Larry Stelling was the only one we didn't see of the class of '64 graduating from the Lutheran School Association, due to a trip to Mars.

We then boarded our plane and went back to New York where everything went back to normal again.

GRADES FIVE AND SIX

The teacher of grades five and six, Mr. Fadler, can report various activities during this past school year. Among these was the interesting study of the universe, planets and stars. Posters and other illustrations added to the study.

Mr. Fadler also directed most of the sports activities for the entire school. Whenever any physical help was needed on the school premises the children of his room have given wonderful help.

Members of the sixth grade are Connie Bergman, Ranella Bormann, Dorothy Gertz, Gary Heimsoth, Ruth Heimsoth, David Heisterberg, Dale Hesse, Kenneth Hesse, Ruth Holtzen, Jonathan Krout, Judy Kullman, Barbara Luetjen, Shirley Meyer, Gary Miesner, Kenneth Schnakenberg, Kenneth Schumacher, Marlene Steffens. The children in the fifth grade are Billie Allee,

Dean Eckhoff, Mark Eckhoff, Judy Ehlers, James Harms, Vickie Heimsoth, Lee Roy Henning, Roger Hesse, Bernice Meyer, Dennis Meyer, Wanda Miesner, Glen Muller, Jennifer Noel, Janice Schuette, Elroy Schumacher, Matthew Tinney, and James Wienberg,

FACULTY ASSISTANT

Mrs. Melvin Heimsoth has been substitute teacher for several years, helping especially on the fourth Tuesday of the month, when the principal has to attend the District Board meeting in St. Louis. This term has expired. Unless he is re-elected for another three-year term, she will be relieved from this regular schedule.

The pastors teach the seventh and eighth grades during the Religion period when the principal is not present.

GRADES THREE AND FOUR

Miss Fritsche is completing her first year of teaching grades three and four. From all indications we would say the thirty-one pupils are growing. We will not give her any special credit for the physical growth, but we certainly can see that there has been much time spent in guiding the pupils to grow in knowledge, both in God's Word and other learning.

In connection with the Mission Fair of Trinity Lutheran Church the third and fourth grades prepared a display depicting village life and landscaping in New Guinea. Later each child wrote a letter to a missionary presently working in New Guinea.

The room had many changes of scenery fitting different seasons and illustrating certain school subjects.

Frequent guests from the animal world were in evidence. Some of these were a box turtle, cutworms, a goldfish, and a butterfly.

The fourth grade this year consists of seventeen children. They are Carolyn Brandt, Melody Gertz, Garry Harms, Cynthia Heimsoth; Steven Heimsoth, Wayne Heimsoth, Walter Heisterberg, Elaine Hesse, Sandra Hesse, Vickey Holtzen, Cathy Kullman, Rhonda Mabe, Ronnie Miesner; Barbara Muller, Steven Noel, Frank Tobaben, and Eldon Zimmer-schied. The fourteen children in the third grade are Shirley Cordes, Dale Denker; Terry Harms, Warren Harms, Mike Heimsoth, Joe Luetjen, Ronald Meyer, Karen Miesner, Victor Monsees, David Muller, Terry Noel, Susan Pritzel, Kevin Schnell, and Elaine Steffens.

GRADE TWO

Besides grade one to give intelligent answers to her questions, Mrs. Hesse has spent another year, her eleventh in a Christian Day school, broadening the learning and thinking of the second grade.

The pupils of the second grade have enjoyed reading in the many books that they had drawn from the bookmobile. They also, with the first grade took an active part in preparing a display for the Trinity Mission Fair. It portrayed life in the Philippines.

A special project for Mother's Day was also completed. Some of these projects can be utilized for the Cole Camp Fair this year.

UNUSUAL EVENTS IN 1963 AND 1964

The untimely death of our President Kennedy has affected world relations. The assassinator becomes notoriously popular. His immediate assassination adds to the confusion and gives rise to many unanswered questions.

May we always fully recognize that the Lord of all nations and kingdoms permits no more to happen than His divine and mysterious will decrees.

Finally, His kingdom will be served.

Pray for the wisdom, discretion, and safety of those in authority.

The mill wheels of God grind slowly but exceedingly fine.

The conquest of space has made many strides forward. Much is yet to be expected. Again the world is His and His is the governing power.

ASK THE FIRST GRADE

MARY KROUT - Who's your favorite baseball player? Ans.: Yogi Berra; Why? Because he hits good sometimes.

JEFFREY KULLMAN - What does the moon look like? Ans.: Sometimes it looks like a yellow circle and sometimes it looks half.

BETTY MONSEES - If you had one wish what would you want? Ans.: A rabbit; Why? Because they're so cute.

CAROLYN HOBEIN - Do you like the Beatles? Ans.: No; Why? Because they have black hair.

CHARLES CORDES - What do the moon people look like? Ans.: White.

RANDALL STEFFENS - Do you like school? Ans.: Yes; Why? Because I can listen to the teacher.

JERRY EHLERS - If you could be anything else, what would you like to be? Ans.: A car; Why? So a man could drive me.

DENISE PRITZEL - If you could be any other age, how old would you like to be? Ans.: 20; Why? So I could get married.

ROBERT MIESNER - Do you like recess? Ans.: Yes; Why? Because you don't have to work at recess.

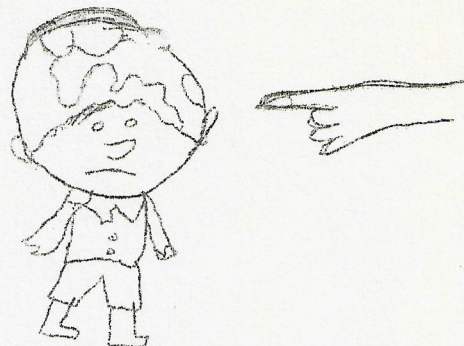

JANICE BAHRENBURG - Do you want to get married? Ans.: Yes; Why? Because I like to cook and do housework.

GARY ZIMMERSCHIED - Would you like to go to the moon? Ans.: No; Why not? Because it's too dangerous for me.

So we shall wait to see what these same pupils will say eight years from now.

Just remember you said this in 1964.

CAN YOU LAUGH?

"You're feeding him too much geography!"

LARRY STELLING: "In the land of the Savannah Eli Whitney invented the cotton picker."

Have you heard about the sign on the classroom wall? -

"TIME PASSES ---WILL YOU?"

MR. SCHNELL: "What is usually used as a conductor of electricity?"

RONNIE VIETS: "Why-er-"

MR. SCHNELL: "Correct, wire. Now tell me, what is the unit of electrical power?"

RONNIE: "The what?"

MR. SCHNELL: "That's absolutely right, the watt."

MR. FADLER: (After a long lesson on the care of teeth) "Now, Shirley, name three kinds of teeth."

SHIRLEY MEYER: "Temporary, permanent, and false."

JAMES: (Returning from school). "Hey, Mom, I'm just like Washington, Jefferson, and Lincoln."

MOTHER: "How's that?"

JAMES: "I went down in History."

MRS. HESSE: "To what family does the whale belong?"

MARY KROUT: "I don't know; no family in our neighborhood has one!"

MISS FRITSCHE: "Who can give me a sentence with the word 'gruesome'?"

WALTER HEISTERBERG: "I can! The man stopped shaving and 'grew some' whiskers."
