CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

RANDALL KAST - This year our class has chosen the motto "Fight the Good Fight of Faith!" We selected this motto, because we will always have to fight against temptations of the devil, the world, and our sinful flesh to strengthen our faith and keep it strong during our life.

We will have to fight temptations even stronger when we leave our school and families in the future. So let us pray that our faith may be strengthened and overcome the danger of even losing it.

I would, on behalf of our class, thank our parents, pastors, and teachers for the part they have played in equipping us to be able to fight the good fight of faith.

Finally, when the end of our life seems to be approaching we may say as did the Apostle Paul in II Timothy 4:7: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

PATTY HOBEIN - The class song we are about to sing is entitled "Fight the Good Fight." It further explains our motto. We feel that this song expresses the thoughts in our hearts as we feel them. We should have no fear because our Lord's protecting arms are always near to shield us and comfort us. We can trust that Jesus will take care of all our needs. He is there to give us strength in time of need.

This song will have many meanings for us as we go through life whether they be days of joy or days of sorrow. In days of old the young king, Hezekiah, laid the serious letter before the Lord and prayed to Him to take charge.

May we follow the example of many who have gone before us and fight the good fight of faith.

LEILA HEISTERBERG - We have just received our diplomas and are about ready to close this service. But before we leave I would like to add a few more thoughts to what has already been said.

During the past eight years we have learned more and more from our teachers. At this time I would like to say "thank you" to all the teachers who have served us during this time. Also a "thank you" to the pastors who have taught us in preparation for Confirmation. Finally, a "thank you" to our good parents who have taken their responsibilities seriously.

Mr. Lohmeyer, your message this evening was very inspiring. On behalf of the class of '77, I say "thank you" for being with us. I am sure that our class and the rest of the assembly will remember your remarks for a long time.

TO THE GRADUATES: We, the faculty of our Lutheran School, extend our best wishes to you not only on your graduation day but for the many days which lie ahead of you.

Your motto and song should be enough of an incentive to urge you onward. You have chosen them; you have made a wise choice.

May the seed which your parents have sown, and hopefully we have added to continue to make you grow spiritually and in all other dimensions.

The Lord's richest blessings are in our wish for you as you "Fight the Good Fight of Faith."

The Faculty

CLASS HISTORY

In 1969 we started with twelve people. They were Scott Balke, Dennis Brockman, Stanley Harms, Leila Heisterberg, Patty Hobein; Keith Kaiser, Nancy Lange, Sherry Meyer, Glenna Miesner, Steve Monsees, Karen Simon, and Laura Wischmeier with Mrs. Hesse as our guide. We were leaving home for a tour of the Western States. Our first stop was at Lincoln, Nebraska, and then on to Mount Rushmore in South Dakota. Mrs. Hesse decided to stay and sculpture a fifth head on the mountain. So our new leader became Mrs. Heisterberg.

Our next stop was in Cheyenne, Wyoming, where the greatest rodeo in the United States is held. There we picked up a cowgirl, Vicki Luetjen. Then we went to Provo, Utah, where we saw the Osmonds. Vicki decided to stay and be the Osmonds' personal secretary. While going through Salt Lake City, we picked up Henry Hoehns and Jeff Knoernschild. Jeff's dad, Mr. Knoernschild, decided to tag along.

We then stopped at San Francisco, where Mrs. Heisterberg decided to stay and visit relatives. Mr. Knoernschild took over as our leader.

We went on to Anaheim, California, where Disneyland is. We picked up Randall Kast, Russell Meyer, and Roberta Back. Laura Wischmeier decided to stay and work at Disneyland.

From there we went to the Grand Canyon where Roberta decided to stay and be a tour guide of the canyon. Roberta took Ricky Roberts' job, so he came along with us.

From the Grand Canyon we went through Santa Fe, New Mexico, and on to Odessa, Texas. Mr. Knoernschild wasn't feeling well, so he decided to stay and have a check-up and take a rest. We took Mr. Schnell as our leader. We went on to San Antonio to see the Alamo. On our way home, we went through Arkansas. We arrived in Cole Camp safe and sound with sixteen students.

CLASS PROPHECY

In the year-1996 we, Randall Kast and Keith Kaiser, two scientists studying the Bermuda Triangle, set out on our laboratory boat, the Geezer II. We launched off the coast of Florida. On our way to meet scuba-diver Ricky Roberts at the bahama Islands, we found Henry Hoehns, a stowaway, under our lifeboat. We called the Coast Guard and they immediately sent officers Patty Hobein and Karen Simon to take him back home. As we went on we found Dennis Brockman and Stanley Harms directing and producing Jaws II, starring Scott Balke as a desperate shark hunter.

As we entered the Triangle, we made a sudden drop deep under the water. There we found hostile aliens who held one of our classmates, Jeff Knoernschild, captive. Despite a deadly gang of octupuses, we were able to free Jeff with only a few bumps and bruises. We went on farther into the Triangle where another classmate, Steve Monsees, was found floating on the water. He was shot down by a German Fighter which was flown by one of our other classmates, Nancy Lange. Steve stayed aboard until he was picked up by an Air Force helicopter which was flown by our good friend Russell Meyer. We were about to our destination when we suddenly heard a splashing sound. We looked around and saw Sherry Meyer riding a giant sea horse. After she had passed us the waves made the boat swerve back and forth making Ricky Roberts fall overboard. We didn't know Ricky fell overboard until the next day. We called the Coast Guard and they said they had picked up Ricky the night before on a deserted island.

As we came out of the Triangle, we saw a tropical island. We decided to spend the afternoon there and were surprised that our good friends Leila Heisterberg and Glenna Miesner were diving for clams. We decided to see if they would come back with us, but they wanted to stay because they loved it there. So we said our good-byes and headed home for a good night's sleep, and memories of our good friends at the Burmuda Triangle.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Our volleyball team was outfitted with new suits this year. A bake sale was held in October, which netted us $183.91. The profits from our annual volleyball tournament also helped pay for this project. Proceeds of basketball and volleyball games helped to defray expenses incurred by the rental of the Benton County R-I Gym.

School was dismissed for five days in January and February because of snow and bad road conditions.

On February 14th, we had our annual Valentine exchange day.

On February 15th, the four upper grades paid a visit to the fire house to get a look at the Cole Camp City and Rural fire-fighting equipment. Some of the firemen explained the proper use of trucks and other equipment.

During the greater part of this past school term we collected nearly 1,200 "Post" cereal box tops. An order was placed for some equipment which we should receive during the month of June. We ordered bases and some recreational material.

The girls volleyball team had a pizza party at the home of Mrs. Viets' mother on March 11.

Our annual picnic day was May 9th. The day was spent in the morning in the local city park. All children brought a sack lunch. In the afternoon softball games by seventh and eighth grade boys and girls were played with Benton County R-I teams of the same age. The weather was ideal.

The annual Halloween Party for grades seven and eight was enjoyed one evening during the last week of October. All other pupils had their party in the afternoon.

The float entered in the 1976 Fair Parade was entitled "Unlock the Future." It was a blue ribbon winner.

The sale of Church Extension Saving Stamps reached a new height this year. Since another stamp day will be held after this printing we can only estimate that the total sale would reach $1,100.00.

The two pastors and the two male teachers conducted weekly chapel services during the year. Parents and friends have been welcomed but evidently have found it inconvenient to attend.

Mrs. Stelling and Mrs. Harms have again accepted their contracts to serve as cooks for the coming year. They have been serving good meals as has always been their custom.

Mrs. Helen Hesse and Mrs. Cathy Viets have also accepted the contracts to teach in their respective classrooms.

THINK & GRIN

Izzy: Want to see something swell?

Dizzy: Sure.

Izzy: Hit your head with a bat!

Flim: My electric toaster broke down, so I repaired it with parts from an old airplane.

Flam: How does it work now?

Flim: Not badly, except that now when the toast pops out, it circles the table twice before coming in for a landing.

City Cousin: Do you like raisin bread?

Farmer: I don't know, I never tried "Raisin" it.

Kenny: I was seeing fuzzy spots before my eyes, so I got a pair of glasses.

Benny: Did they help?

Kenny: Sure did. I see the spots much more clearly now.

"I don't care what it is!
Find out what it eats!"

"He who laughs last doesn't catch on so fast."
