CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

Teresa Harms: This year our class has chosen the motto "Stand Firm on the Foundation of Faith". Our christian life is like a building. For a building to stand up it must have a firm foundation. Our faith is the foundation.

We must have a firm faith to overcome the many trials and temptations of this world. If our life is built on any other foundation we will be torn away from Jesus Christ, the only way of salvation. To have this strong faith we must allow the Holy Ghost to work in our hearts. We allow the Holy Ghost to work in our hearts when we listen to God's Word and take it in.

Therefore to stand firm on the foundation of faith we need to study God's Word by reading it, having family devotions, and going to church. Let us remember our motto and follow it all our lives.

Brian Case: Friends, parents, and fellow classmates. Our class song entitled, "Lord of Glory who has Bought Us", is one we should remember throughout our lives. We should remember it because of the price Christ paid to buy us back from sin. As Luther put it in his explanation, "not with gold or silver, but with His holy precious blood and His innocent sufferings and death". Because Christ has done this for us we should praise and honor Him.

Because God gives us so many blessings, so many we can't count them, we should bless God and put Him first throughout our lives. We should also keep steadfast on the "Firm Foundation of Faith".

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank the faculty for leading us on the right path through these eight years, and a special thanks to our guest speaker, Rev. Marvin Ulmer for his inspiring message. Thank you.

FACULTY

May God bless you richly today and everyday. He will if you will "stand firm on the foundation of faith".

Nothing is more important in this world than faith in Jesus Christ. All honors, glories, triumphs, and successes fade into insignificance when compared with that faith. No matter who you are or what you are, God looks upon all people with only one distinction -- those who have faith in His Son and those who do not. Our lives, our dreams, our ventures here upon earth will all pass away. But God's love and mercy never fail to those who love Him.

Therefore, if you want to be a success in life, put God first and "stand firm". That is what we have tried to teach you, and that will be our continued prayer for you.

CLASS HISTORY

In the year 1971, we, Jim Bahrenburg, Robert Brunjes, Johnny Ehlers, Rusty Harms, Teresa Harms, Gayle Heimsoth, Jana Heimsoth, Alan Kerksiek, Bonnie Mahnken, Lois Simon, and Katy Wischmeier started out on a tour of the ocean depths. As we were about to board our submarine named the U.S.S. Minnow, we found out our captain was Mrs. Hesse. As we started our journey we saw an extremely strange clam. We opened it and to our surprise Carl Hoehns jumped out. He decided to come along on our voyage. Mrs. Hesse wanted to stay and teach a school of barracuda so Mrs. Heisterberg, the first mate, became our new captain.

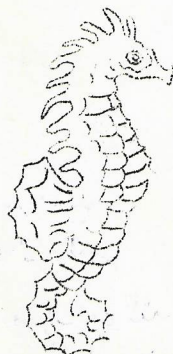

As we went on we sighted a wrecked ship. We wanted to explore the wreck so we went out near the ship. As we were looking Katy Wischmeier disappeared. We searched and searched but couldn't find her. But instead we found Kenda Askey disguised as a mermaid. We took Kenda along while Mrs. Heisterberg stayed and looked for Katy. But now we had no captain but to our surprise we saw Mr. Knoernschild skin diving. We asked him to be our captain and he accepted the invitation.

Our ship was slightly damaged so we had to make a few repairs. We surfaced and saw two famous marine biologists, Kevin Roark and Kevin Blevins. We asked them to join us on our voyage. After much consideration they finally came aboard our ship.

After we submerged a thousand feet, we came upon an under sea cave where we found Brian Case sleeping on a bed of oysters. He decided to come along but Mr. Knoernschild wanted to stay and look for pearls in the oysters, so Mr. Schnell, a volunteer, became our captain.

In time we started to head back for home but Mr. Schnell wanted off to help coach a dolphin's football team. But now we had no captain, so Mr. Bauer the assistant coach joined us as the captain of our ship.

We finally reached our destination with 15 passengers and our captain. After eight years of exploration our voyage came to an end.

CLASS PROPHECY

In the year 2020, we Robert Brunjes, Brian Case, and Rusty Harms journeyed to the planet of Twylo.

On our way we saw Alan Kerksiek trying to catch his pet meteors. Since Alan was having a hard time we helped him catch them. After a short visit there, we continued to Twylo.

Just as we were about to arrive we suddenly hit something that shook our ship. We went to check our ship and we found it was Kevin Blevens in his moon buggy. There was no damage so we continued on.

When our ship had landed we found out the owner of the Willie Woo-Woo Landing Pad was none other than Jim Bahrenburg. Jim told us there was something wrong with our ship, so we took it to C and J Repairs. There we found former classmates and co-owners, Carl Hoehns and Johnny Ehlers. While they were fixing our ship we decided to take a short tour of Twylo. As soon as we got our shuttle car ready we took off.

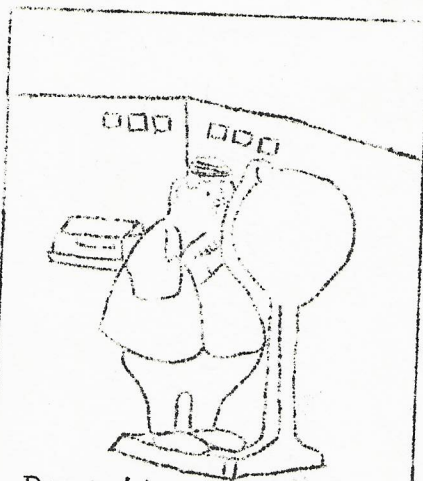

After we had traveled 13 wacks (miles) we came to the Boom-Boom Saloon, where we stopped to get something to drink. We found out that the owners of the saloon were Teresa Harms and Kenda Askey. After a little talk we went on for 5 more wacks.

We stopped at the Bozo Bum Studio, where we found Jana Heimsoth as a famous model and Gayle Heimsoth as the photographer.

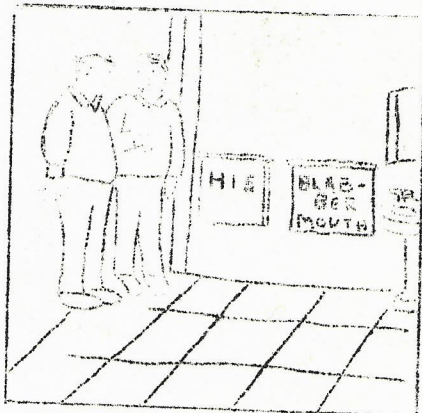

As we were heading to the repair shop, we saw the famous detectives of Twylo, Kevin's Angels. We found out their names were Lois Simon and Bonnie Mahnken, and were employed by Kevin Roark.

When we returned to pick up our spaceship, we boarded and lifted off on our journey back to earth.

We still have our memories of all our friends on the planet of Twylo.

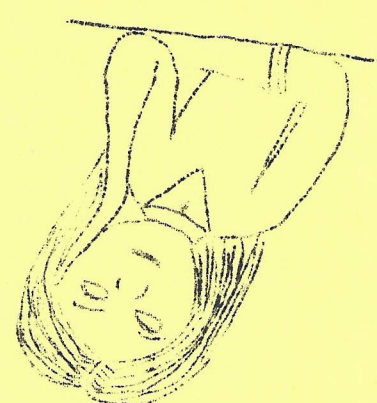

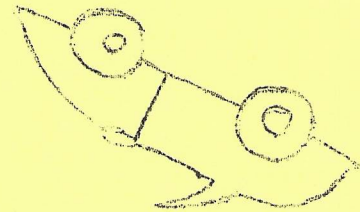

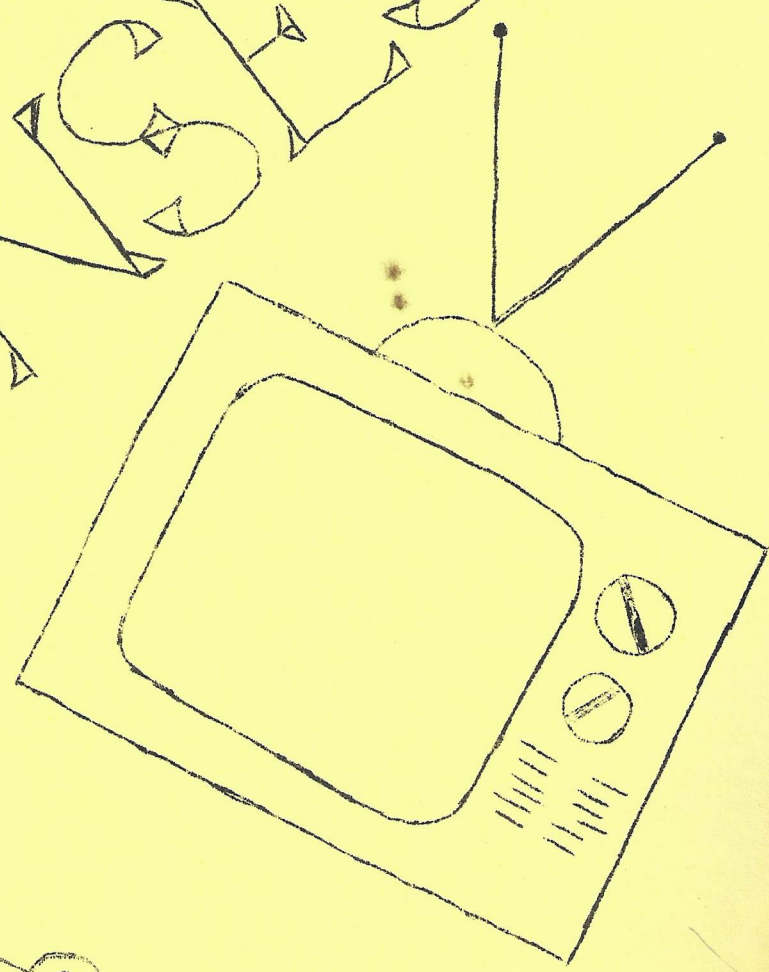

Deposit another penny for the next hundred pounds.

GOING PLACES

On April 28, the Lutheran School took a field trip to Bennet Springs State Park to tour the trout hatchery, take a nature hike, and go through a museum. This was to make up for a snow day. Buses were rented from Lincoln and 2 bus drivers were paid to drive. On our field trip we were guided by a conservation naturalist who took us through the museum. He also showed us the pools where the trout are separated. He told us that the trout fish were very aggressive. He explained how the fish are fertilized and hatched. We were then showed the spring, which is unusual because it's right in the middle of some other water instead of coming out from the side of a hill. After we ate dinner, we went on a nature hike and then went home.

On May 5, the four upper grades entered in a track meet at Alma. The 7th and 8th grades received 3 ribbons. Third place winners were Steve Pritzel in the 44 and Teresa Harms in the broad jump. Kenda Askey was a second place winner in the ball throw. The 5th and 6th grades received 7 ribbons. Third place winners were Heather Stelling in the 50 and 100 yard dashes, Greg Heimsoth in the ball throw, Bruce Lange in the 75 yard dash, and Sharon Kast in the 75 yard dash. Bruce Lange was a second place winner in the 50 yard dash. Sharon Kast was a first place winner in the 75 yard dash.

On Tuesday, May 15, the two upper grades went to Jefferson City to tour the capital, the Conservation Department, and go to Loman's Landing. The eight students who received more than a 90% on the constitution test were chosen to be pages at the capital and received certificates.

The 7th and 8th grade boys had a very successful season this year. They played 19 games. They won 14 of them and lost 5. The team's high scorer was Brian Case who had 191 points for the season.

This team made Lutheran School history by scoring 65 points in one game while the other team had scored only 19 points. The Black Knights scored 100 points in one game during the Honey Creek tournament while the other team scored only 2 points. Our team's coach, Leon Stelling, said that this was the most points any 7th and 8th grade team had made as long as he has been coaching.

The team would like to give a special THANKS to Mr. Stelling for coaching them.
