CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

ROXANN MEYER: Our class motto for this year is "What we are is God's gift to us; what we become is our gift to God." All that we have is from God. He has given everything to us.

God has given each one of us special talents. We should use them to become what God wants us to become. Every talent which God has given to us must be used wisely and to the glory of God.

Every day we should remember what God has done for us and use our talents to God's glory. Living up to what God wants us to be won't be easy, but God will give strength to you and me to continue living for God in spite of persecutions. May God help everyone to reach their goal in life.

- - - - -

TANJA RAMBOW: The hymn we have chosen is a well known hymn entitled "Savior I Follow On."

A childhood game is follow the leader. Wherever the leader goes, everyone else follows.

We are Christ's and we follow Him, for Jesus is our leader. We, His children, can be sure He knows where He is going and what He is doing. So we follow Jesus, our Savior, with complete faith and turn our lives over to Him who died for us knowing He will let happen only what is good and right.

Dear Savior, we follow on with you as our leader. Keep us ever close to you through this life until we reach our heavenly home above.

- - - - -

DAVID WILSHUSEN: Tonight I would like to thank the faculty of the school for their fine job of teaching and guiding us through the past eight years. They have done a fine job of it.

I would also like to thank our athletic directors, Pete Stelling and Cathy Viets, for their time and services.

I would like to give a special thanks to Pastor Schillo for coming to our graduation to speak. So, on behalf of the 1980 Eighth Grade, thank you for everything you have done for us.

FACULTY

TO THE GRADUATES: God gives various gifts to His people. To some He gives more than to others. We dare not look down upon those who have less or different gifts than we do.

God has blessed you richly with gifts. These gifts are to be used to His glory and for the welfare of our fellow man. We, as a faculty, challenge you to use these gifts in God's service. If you will put His work first in your lives, you will find that God will bless you even more richly.

CLASS HISTORY

In the year 1972, we, Becky Bergman, Alice Holtzen, Tanjie Rambow, Jean Schnakenberg, Steve Pritzel, Dale Schnackenberg and Lance Stelling, boarded our time machine and set off for the year 1776. On the way, Mrs. Hesse, our captain, found our machine was malfunctioning, and we landed in the year 421 B.C. (prehistoric times). We found Shelley Noel and Roxann Meyer hiding in a cave from a dinosaur. We rescued them and decided to take them along. Mrs. Hesse and Jean decided to stay and teach the dinosaurs some manners. So we recruited Mrs. Heisterberg and set off for the year 2021. We found Pat Brauer there surrounded by an army of robots. So we helped fight them off and took him with us. Then we traveled back and picked up Jean. The dinosaurs still needed teaching, so Mrs. Hesse persuaded Mrs. Heisterberg. We then recruited Mrs. Harms and set off for the year 1869. Mrs. Harms thought it was pleasant and stayed awhile.

Mr. Knoernschild was our next captain for the year 1395 B.C. Mr. Knoernschild wanted to stay and help the cave people be more civilized. We then needed a new captain. Mr. Bauer then applied for the job. He brought along David Wilshusen and traveled to the year 1980. Along the way Pat got lost and couldn't be found. We finally reached our destination with ten passengers and our captain. After eight years of exploration of time, past and present, our journies come to an end.

CLASS PROPHECY

In the year 2991, Becky Bergman and I, Roxann Meyer, after resigning from President and Vice President of the United States, set out to gain control of the U.S.S.R. In our traveling, we stopped in Tanzania where we found Lance Stelling and David Wilshusen competing in a weiner eating contest. We stayed to see the results, which ended in a tie. They both received a year's supply of Alka-Seltzer. We traveled on by submarine. Tanjie Rambow was captain and Steve Pritzel was first mate. While we were diving under water with Tanjie and Steve at the controls, we crashed into a large fish, completely totaling our sub. We called for help and who should appear but Alice Holtzen and Shelley Noel in their newly invented underwater car. They rushed us to the hospital where the attending nurse was none other than Dale Schnackenberg. Dale told us that Jean Schnakenberg had won a gold medal for smashing the most ice cubes in a minute. We finally arrived in the U.S.S.R. but someone else had already taken over. So we watched television instead.

A LOOK BACK...

One day as we were walking through the woods, our fearful leader, Lance Stelling, found a hollow stump. As he peered downward, he fell in. Soon everyone had jumped in. We found ourselves floating in darkness, and traveling back in time, and this is what we saw...

One day Lance, David and Steve decided to hike through the desert. Lance takes a can of water, David takes a loaf of bread and Steve takes a car door. They get about half way across when they meet an old prospector. He asks Lance what he had the can of water for. "So I can take a drink of water when I get thirsty," was the reply. Then he asks David what the loaf of bread was for. He answered, "When I get hungry, I can eat it." Then he sees Steve carrying a car door. He asks him, "What are you carrying a car door for?" Steve told him, "When it gets hot, I'll roll down the window."

Jeff: Are you trying to make a monkey out of me?
Mr. Bauer: Why should I take the credit?

Dale: I heard you singing this morning!
Bruce: Yeah, I was just killing time.
Dale: You certainly have a good weapon.

Becky: Which has a greater number of legs, one elephant or no elephant?

Tanjie: One elephant

Becky: Wrong! One elephant has four legs, but no elephant has 10 legs!

Steve: I was seeing fuzzy spots before my eyes, so I got a pair of glasses.

Lance: Did they help?

Steve: Sure did. I see the spots much more clearly now.

Mrs. Viets: My electric toaster broke down, so my husband repaired it with parts from an old airplane.

Mrs. Hesse: How does it work now?

Mrs. Viets: Not badly, except that now when the toast pops out, it circles the table twice before coming in for a landing.

Jean: Dale, where did you take your bath?

Dale: In the spring.

Jean: I didn't ask when; I asked where.

Dale: What's the last word in airplanes?

Lance: Jump

Steve: I hear you got a new car.

Mr. Bauer: Yup.

Steve: What kind is it?

Mr. Bauer: A Rolls-Kanardly.

Steve: What?

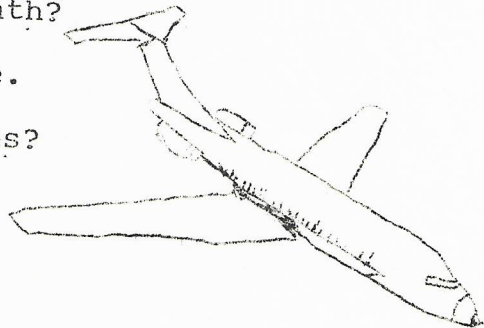

Mr. Bauer: A Rolls-Kanardly. It rolls down one hill and kanardly make it up the next.
