

DEDICATION

MRS. DOROTHY STOERMER

We, the eighth grade class of 1989-1990 are proud to dedicate this yearbook to Dorothy Stoermer, our school's librarian, who with skill, kindness, and generosity has kept our library organized for ten years. We appreciate all she has done for the school and for dedicating her time to help us. Through the years she has enriched our library with books that we enjoy reading and whenever we need help finding a book she is always there to help us. We dedicate this book to thank you, Dorothy, for all you have done for us. May God bless you and give you all the richest blessings.

REV. DALE SVEOM

IN APPRECIATION

"Teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and lo I am with you always even unto the end of the world." Matthew 28v20

"And you shall teach them the statutes and the decisions, and make them know the way in which they must walk and what they must do." Exodus 18v20

Our pastors have faithfully taught the eighth grade confirmation classes of our Lutheran School the statutes and commands of the Lord and the Gospel message of salvation. We appreciate all that they have done to help us to study, learn, and meditate on God's Word. May God's richest blessings be with you throughout your ministries.

"EIGHT IS ENOUGH" REUNION

In the year 2006, I, Chris Hesse, the well-known designer of the new White House, decided to organize a reunion party for the class of 1990, also known as the "Eight Is Enough" class. The class would fly to Miami, Florida, and then take a cruise to the Bermuda Islands. It would be a wild, fun-filled get-away for three days.

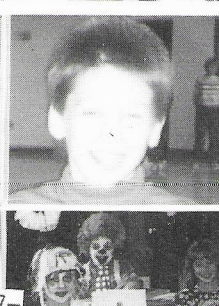

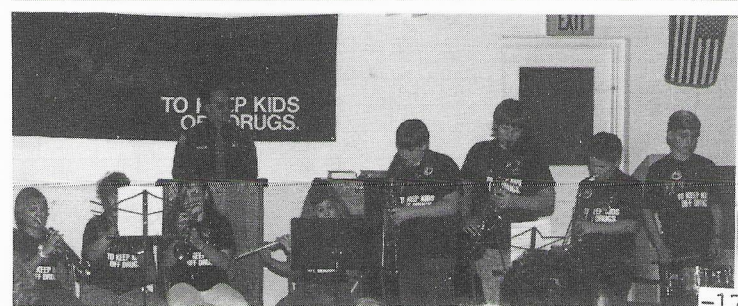

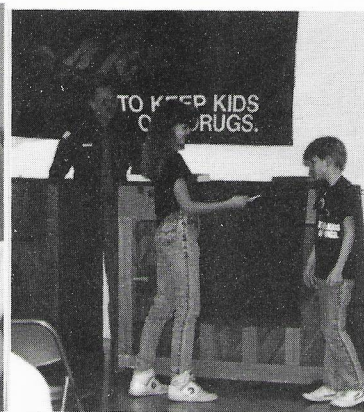

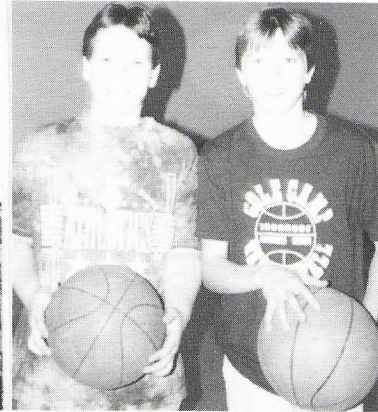

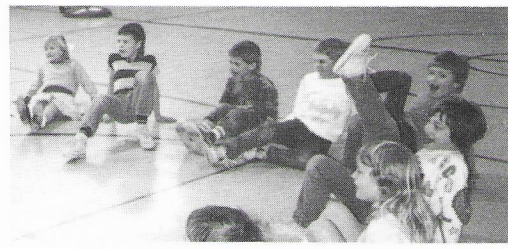

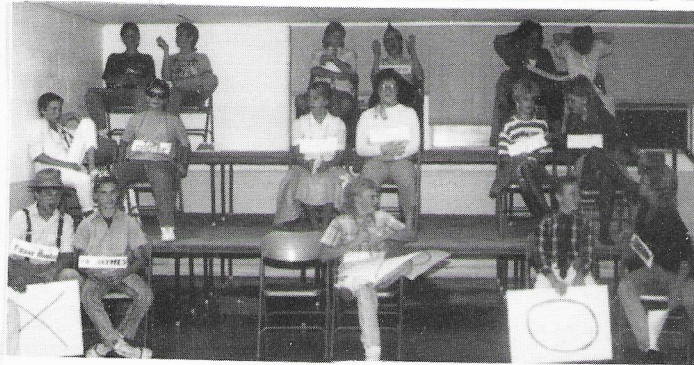

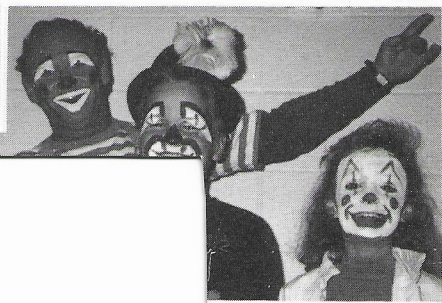

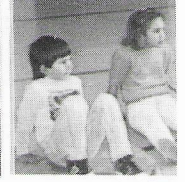

First, I contacted Robyn Bauer, the famous whale and dolphin trainer of Sea World in Orlando, Florida. I asked Robyn if she would be willing to use her yacht for our cruise. She gladly agreed to the idea. Then I had to call the rest of the class.

Stephanie Bahrenburg, Miss America 2006, was so glad to come. She said it would be wonderful to take a vacation from all her annoying fans. Erich Ahlers, the famous opera singer, informed me that he would be there even though it would be difficult with all his auditions and performances. Russell Bergman, "King Kong Berge," the world-famous wrestler agreed that the reunion was a great idea. He liked the idea of having a peaceful vacation. I luckily called Aaron Meyer right before the testing of his new light-speed car. Aaron said if his car really worked, that he would be there in a flash but if not he would just fly to Miami in an airplane. Next, I called the Air Force base to talk to Brian Oelrichs, nicknamed "Flyin' Brian." He said he would bring along his co-pilot, our old friend, Jason Heimsoth, nicknamed "Racin' Jason."

After all the classmates arrived at the Miami airport, I picked them up in my limo. I then took the class to Robyn Bauer's yacht in Miami, Florida. Everyone boarded the yacht very excited about the three-day cruise. We then left the port. After we had cruised for a couple of minutes everyone began to reminisce about their lives. Robyn got out the champaign and poured everyone a glass. As we were sipping our champaign we felt a tremendous jerk. Just then we heard a scream from the deck where Stephanie was looking out over the ocean. We all ran to see what the excitement was about. Stephanie, short of breath, explained that she had seen a hideous monster the size of a boat jump out of the ocean and dive back in. The Bermuda Triangle legend states that the creature vanishes when it sees an old bald-headed man. We then went out to the deck to wait to see the monster again. Just then the same hideous creature burst out of the water with a great roar. In the distance we could see a ship. An older man was standing on the deck of the ship--we knew then that we would be saved. When the monster saw the man it plunged into the ocean never to be seen again. As the ship approached we could see who it really was. It was Mr. Bauer, our old 7th and 8th grade teacher who had come to save us. Everyone then cruised to the Bermuda Islands and relaxed for the next few days. Mr. Bauer told us that he and Mrs. Bauer had moved to Alaska to open his own business, "Bauerdales". His store was having a special sale on checked pants, brown shoes and toupees.

Over all, it was a fun vacation and we knew it would be an adventure we would never forget.
