Dedication

We the 8th grade class of 1998-99 dedicate this yearbook to our confirmation instructors. We want to thank them for instructing us in God's Word and helping us to understand it more fully. They have cooperated with us through our good and bad days. We really appreciate them taking the time to help us understand the catechism and Bible. Thanks for being our teachers as well as our friends.

Class of '99 Prophecy

I, Stewart, have decided to call a class reunion, but first I had to find them. I went to Montana to find Andy on his private hunting ground his father bought when he won the lottery. I found him as he was checking in with his 30 point buck. He was so proud, with his picture in his hand. Andy and I went back to the hotel. We decided to call Courtney and Gwen, who were in nearby California, where they were tanning at the beach and checking out the guys. In her spare time, Courtney teaches at the local kindergarten where the kids adore her. Gwen gives personal massages to all and to everyone who need to relax. B.T. was living down by the river in a van as a motivational speaker, and Derrick a pro rugby player, was visiting him while in town for a game. Senator Reggie Hout was in New York, having brunch with the mayor, working as a member of congress. We had found everyone, except for the teachers. Mr. Bauer was retired, living in central Missouri and living happily all alone with his wife in a house shaped like an arrowhead with no students to bother him with stupid questions. He was truly enjoying himself. Mrs. Glaskey was in a nursing home and was the ping pong champion of the world. Later that night we went to the White House to eat with the President after Reggie told him our story.
