We the 8th grade class of 2000-01 dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Joe Kabler. He has been the custodian of the Lutheran School for the past two years. We would like to thank him for the great job he does cleaning up our school, but more importantly for being our friend. Best wishes and God's blessings!

We the 8th grade class of the year 2000-01 would like to show our appreciation to our head cook, Lavera Harms. We want to thank her for the many good meals that she has cooked for us the past eight, while we attended the Lutheran School. We will really miss all that good food and those second helpings next year!

THANKS GRANDMA!

Class of 2001 Prophecy

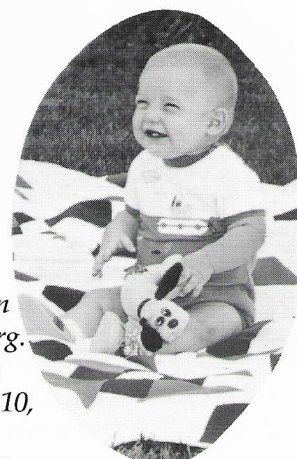

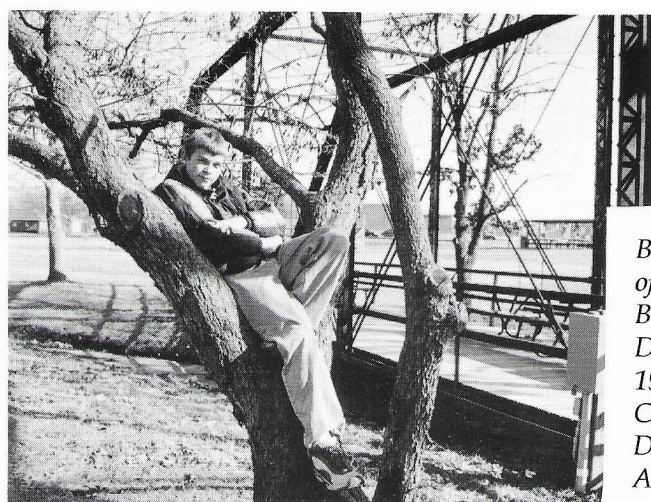

It was the year 2015 and I, Leslie Kullman, had just worked a long day at my vet's office. I went home and reminisced about my childhood. The time I remember particularly the most was my 8th grade year. I was the class president, Riley was the class clown, and our class was constantly in an argument. But, as all classes do, we stuck together in tough times. I realized that I hadn't seen my class in years! I knew that Riley was competing in a mudding contest with Hagen in their jacked-up power Rangers. I found them practicing at Hagen's uncle's house. We all hopped into Riley's van that had velvet bucket seats, a hot tub, shaggy carpet, and built-in TVs, and a surround-sound system. We all liked Riley's van and asked him where he got the yellow paint job. He said he got it from Coy's Auto Body. That just happened to be where Nathan worked. He had come up with a new big, bad Dodge model. We headed up to Lee's Summit where we found Branden arguing a case at his law firm. We were out of gas so we stopped at a local gas stop where we found Bryan. He filled us up, hopped in, and we were off to Los Angeles. When we got there, we stopped at Kristy's Salon where we all got new haircuts. We found Heimsoth operating on Mrs. Glaskey. She had almost had a nervous breakdown when she heard we were all coming back to town. By this time we were all starving so we stopped off at a fancy little restaurant. In the back we found Ben. He owned the restaurant that had very good service. We all went to Hollywood so we could catch Tay's concert. Heimsoth and I decided to join her on stage and we started our own rock band. When we got done, we relaxed as we watched Jordan at his baseball game. He was a catcher for the St. Louis Cardinals, who just happened to be in town. We all partied and went home with new memories. This time we didn't end up in any arguments, but who knows what's going to happen at the next reunion!

During the winter months this year, the students became published authors with the help of the Student Treasures Co. Students in grades one through four wrote class anthologies. Fifth through eighth graders each wrote a fractured fairy tale which were then published in individual books. After designing their own illustrations and book covers, the students were very proud of their efforts.
