8th Grade Class Prophecy

I, Zach Pool, a successful comedian, was looking through my mail when I came across a letter from the Lutheran School Association in Cole Camp, Missouri. I opened it to find an invitation to the eighth grade class of 2003 ten year reunion. I hadn't realized how long it had been since I had seen all of my old classmates. I wasn't even sure if they had all even received an invitation, so I decided to track them down. After several hours of internet searching, I found Adam Ehrichs in New Jersey playing NBA basketball for the New Jersey Nets. I found Rachel Cordes, too. She was his team's coach! I bought a ticket to go to their game against the L.A. Lakers. I was looking at the Lakers' roster and was surprised to find Chad Harms playing on their team. After the game, I caught up with Adam, Rachel, and Chad and told them about the reunion. They wanted to help me find our other classmates; so, we decided to do something fun before our long day of searching. We decided to go to a concert. When we got there, we noticed that the band that was playing was Wink 281. Andrea Petersen's and Susan Mann's rock band. Their concert was great, and afterwards, we went backstage to get them to help us look for our other friends. They had kept in touch with Ashley Heimsoth and Brianna Snell, so they knew exactly where to look. Ashley and Brianna were both in Florida. Ashley was a successful pediatrician who was trying out for the Miami Dolphins' cheerleading squad. We called her and asked where Brianna was. She told us that Brianna was training dolphins in Ft. Walton Beach. They agreed to find Christina Simon and bring her back for the reunion, while we went to look for Andrew Kurz, Andrew Lutz, Andrew Westermier, Erich Mueller, and Justin Hoehns. Ashley and Brianna located Christina at the NASA Space Center, studying to be an astronaut. While they were on their way back to Cole Camp, we went by the local correctional facility and picked up Erich Mueller...he was a security guard. Erich knew that Andrew Lutz lived only a few blocks away, so we went by to visit. Andrew was an architect, and had designed the school where Andrew Kurz worked. Andrew Kurz was a seventh and eighth grade teacher and had already driven to Cole Camp the week before. There were only two of our old classmates that we hadn't found yet. As we were driving around town, we saw Westermier Mechanics. We stopped by and found out that the owner was Andrew Westermier. Andrew had worked on Justin Hoehns' race cars and knew exactly where to find him. He was at the local track racing. Afterwards, we talked Justin in to going to the reunion. We now had all of our classmates back together! The only problem was that no one knew where our teacher, Mrs. MacLean, was. We weren't sure where to look, so we just decided to go back to Cole Camp and hope that she would come to the reunion. The morning of the reunion, we asked some of the other teachers that we had, if they knew where Mrs. MacLean was. Mr. Lutz was the only one who knew. He said she had given up teaching and was living in Mexico with Brian and their eight children. Mrs. MacLean told us that she might be a little late because she had to pack for herself, Brian, and their eight children, and try to fit all of the family and their suitcases into one van! The reunion went great, and Mrs. and Mr. MacLean did finally come with all eight of their kids. Everyone was sorry to have to go back to their lives and jobs, but they could hardly wait until their next reunion.

Here, the team is talking before the fun activity at State. Tammy's being serious for once! The team took 5th in State this year.

Christina Simon is passing up a tip from the other team. She has even been blocking a lot this year.

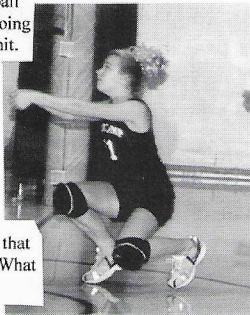

Andrea Petersen is getting ready for a perfect pass. She also had the best serving percentage.

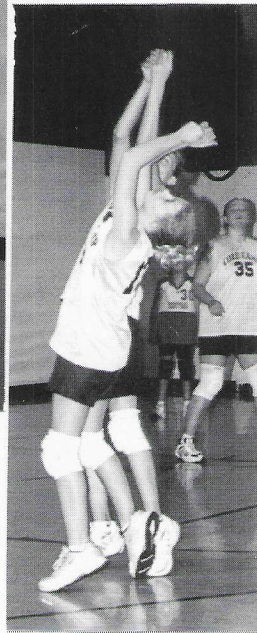

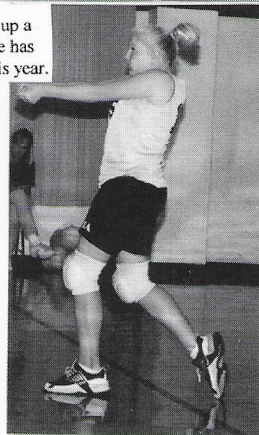

Susan Mann gets ready for a pass. She had the best pressure serves this year.

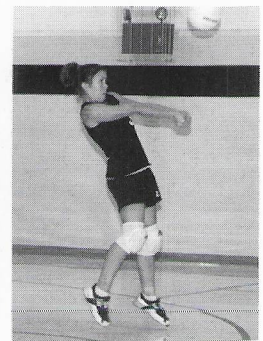

Rachel Cordes easily sets the ball over to the other side instead doing her "famous" extremely hard hit.

Ashley Heimsoth saves a ball that has been passed into the net. What a great setter!!

Brianna Snell hits the ball backwards over the net, keeping the ball off the floor and saving a point.

Lindsey Emmerich tries to pass up a ball that's almost out of bounds. She has some quick feet!
