

DEDICATION

We, the Eighth Grade class of the L.S.A. of 2005-06, dedicate this yearbook to our parents, Diane Blackburn, Dan Blackburn, Stephanie Eaton, Rusty Harms, Tamala & Brian Heimsoth, Kim Cormican, Mark Pitts. We dedicate this yearbook to them because they have been so supportive during our 8 years at L.S.A. We appreciate all the miles they have put on their cars for school events, the time spent at games and musicals, long hours working on the float, field trips and for just putting up with us longer than anyone else!

Thank you and we love you!!!

Class Prophecy

The year is now 2016 and it's time for the newly expanded Cole Camp World's Fair. The LSA class of 2006 is gathering together to ride on an alumni float. It's exciting to be getting together again after all this time. It was a small class and they did so much together. It is amazing how they have all gone in such different directions.

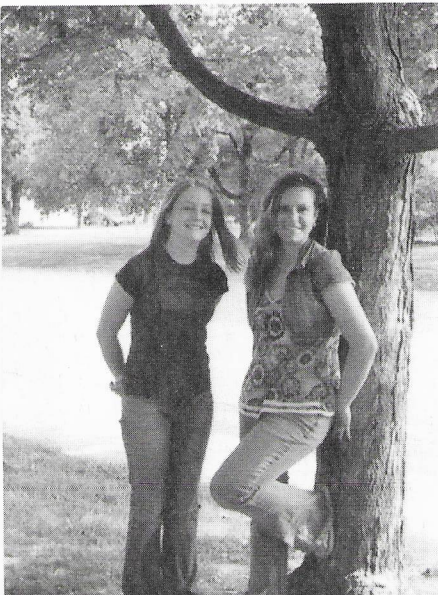

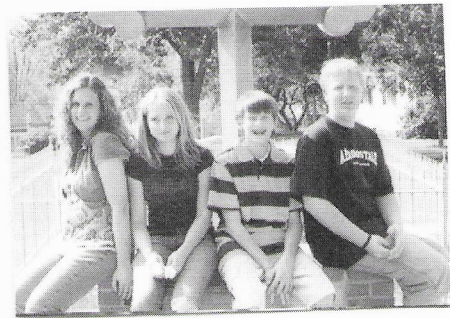

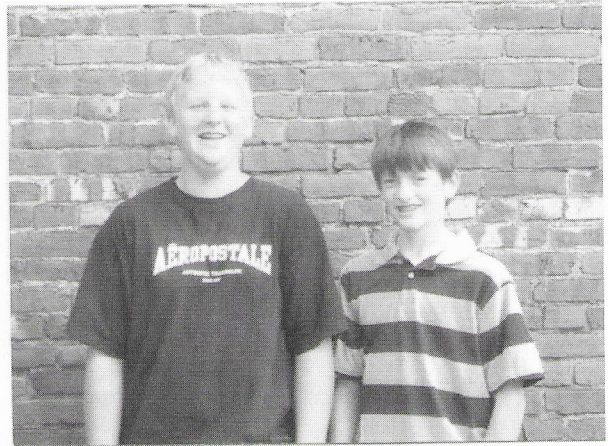

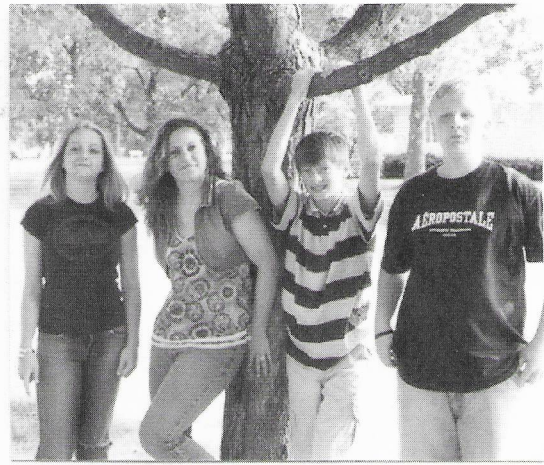

Here comes Audra Blackburn. She has gotten quite famous now, having taken her clogging troupe on the road. I'm sure you have heard of her since her dance group ColeCampCreekDance is now grossing more in ticket sales than RiverDance and the Lord of the Dance ever did together. How she keeps up the touring schedule while training dolphins, I'll never know.

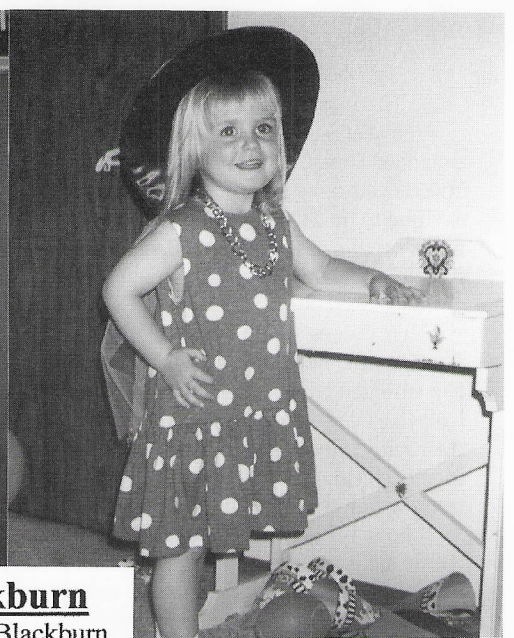

I hope Aaron Pitts can make it. Nobody has heard from Aaron since the military assigned him to a Top Secret mission. His job is to disprove the existence of absolutely everything unexplainable. He's worked on such mysteries as the eerily infamous "Hot Wendy's" of St. Louis where even on cool days it is painfully warm and why so many people in the world are "ladia".

I know Matthew Heimsoth will be there. He is showing his award winning goats at the fair again this year. That is of course if he can get them gathered up as they keep fainting every time he calls them. The goats are a good side line for him since it is taking a while for his stand-up comedy career to get off the ground.

Of course, then there's Quincy Harms. She's the only other member of the illustrious LSA class of 2006. This is the first time she will have been back in Cole Camp since graduating from High School. I'm sure it's tough to get back since she is traveling all the time in the "All Pink Shoe Sports Cavalcade". What with playing professional soccer, basketball and softball she hardly has time for anything else.

Of course, I, Pastor Todd am still here in Cole Camp trying to recover from the '05/'06 confirmation year. But I wouldn't miss this opportunity to get back together with one of the smallest and greatest 8th grade classes LSA has ever seen!
