

Dedication

Pastor Gary Clayton was a dedicated pastor who showed all of us what it meant to be a true believer in God. It was a tradition for him to play the piano for all of our programs during the school year. He always had a smile on his face and showed great kindness to everyone. Even through his sickness, he still played for us until he was put into the nursing home. He showed his faithfulness to God everyday through his attitude and everything that he did. Pastor Clayton is greatly missed by all the people who were apart of his life.

Pastor Clayton

Mrs. Debbie Eckhoff was a dedicated teacher. This year's eighth grade class was her first class at LSA. She always had an effervescent personality that made the school day much easier to bear. She would constantly smile and tell us to keep up the hard work and persevere. She has been one of the best teachers ever! To us, she was not only a teacher, but an older friend, who was always there to listen to us and help us whenever she could!

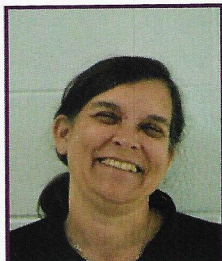

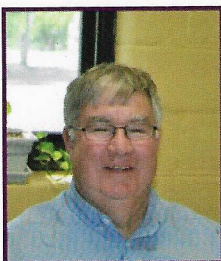

Debra Eckhoff

With much thanks and appreciation for all your time, care and service,

The Eighth Grade Class of 2012

Class Prophecy

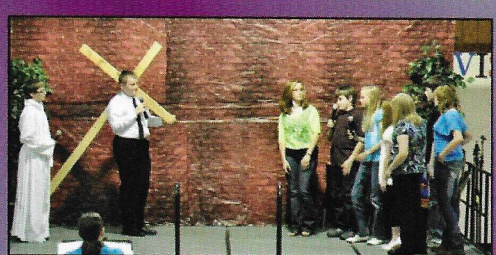

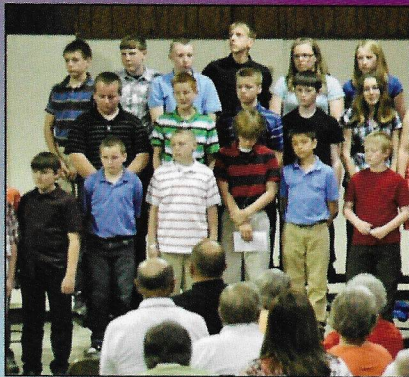

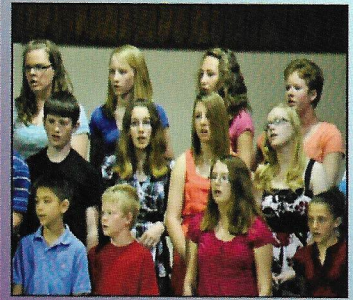

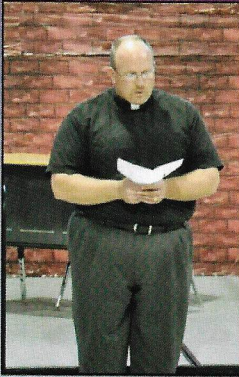

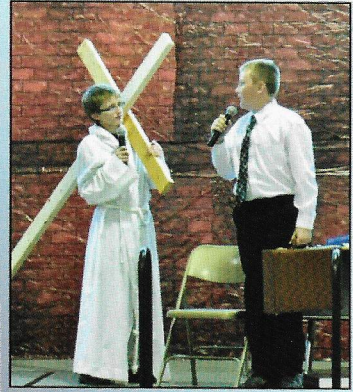

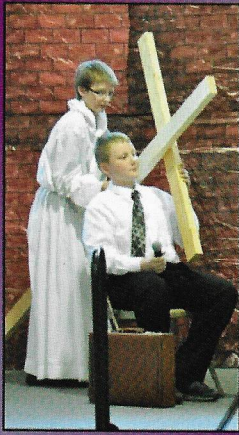

Here we are in 2022 and it is time for Pastor Todd to take a look back on the class that made its mark on the hallowed halls of our Lutheran School Association a decade ago...the Class of 2012. To kick things off, I was able to get in touch with Lauren Baalman. Lauren once told me that she was always average. However, having put her mind to it, she graduated Summa Cum Laude from Yale. She has now taken that mindset and excelled beyond belief. She has started a nationwide movement, teaching average kids that they too can excel just like her. "Reach for the Stars", Lauren's organization, stands to win a Nobel Prize and has been recognized Globally for its work. What is maybe one of the greatest surprises of the whole class, is Unser Brockman. Unser moved away from Cole Camp shortly after he graduated from high school. Having completed a degree in actuarial accounting, Unser now is a leader in the field of actuarial science in the insurance industry. He has taken this ability and now leads seminars in schools teaching kids exactly why they shouldn't do the things their teachers and leaders tell them not to do. The name of his presentation is..."Even if you think it's a good idea...this is why it's not" or "Why you should never say...Hey Watch This". Peyton Goetz was a little harder to get a hold of because when I called and left her messages, she said she didn't remember my name. Once we were able to get in touch with one another, I was pleased to know that Peyton has done very well for herself designing a new line of "country girl fashions". When I asked her how she was able to do so well for herself, she said, "It just worked Pastor Boothby". (good grief) Now what this next girl is up to came as no surprise. Devon Harms has become a famous "smile" model. She stated that she had been noticed by a representative of Ford Modeling Agency of New York City. When Devon inquired as to why the rep was interested in her, she said that she had never seen someone who had such an infectious smile and who used it so much. Keep smiling Devon! Now, Lane Johnson, on the other hand has gone a route that I did not see. Having made his way to a 2020 NCAA basketball second place finish with the Mizzou Tigers, Lane found himself as a guest on the ever popular Dancing With The Stars. Lane did so well on the show, they decided to hire him as one of the pro's! He is now known as Lane "Mr. Boogie" Johnson. In another phenomenal basketball story, Alex Pritzel has won the day. Alex, having been heavily recruited, went to play for the perpetually struggling Iowa Hawkeye Basketball program. Alex was able to score his way to leading the Hawkeyes to overcome Lane and his tigers for the 2020 NCAA basketball championship. Alex is now coaching for the Hawkeyes and says, "I can't believe how awesome Iowa is, I can't understand how anybody would ever want to be anywhere else!" So true Alex, so true. Finally, I was able to get in touch with Alyssa Weinberg. This was no easy task since she started her own traveling musical troupe, The Cole Camp Opera Company. I was able to catch up with her as the CCOC was just finishing up a run, performing Wagner's "Die Walküre". Alyssa has made her mark though in the fact that the CCOC performs only German operas, translated into Low German to remain faithful to her Cole Camp roots. Hartlik Lückwunsch!
